Dear [REDACTED]:

Separation from a job-[REDACTED]

We made a decision about your unemployment benefits claim based on information we have at this time.

We denied your unemployment benefits starting Sep 5 2021 until you requalify.

You or your employer, [REDACTED], said you quit. We decided you didn't have a good reason for quitting your job. See the details below.

- The law says you can quit for certain reasons. The reason you quit is not included in the law. The laws that apply are RCW 50.20.050 and WAC 192-150-085.

You can requalify when:

- At least SEVEN weeks have passed after the week you separated from [REDACTED]; and
- You returned to work and earned SEVEN times your weekly benefit amount as of Jan 4 2022, which is $929.00.

If we need to consider other questions about your claim, we'll send you separate letters to address each issue.

You owe us $9290.00 as a result of this decision. You must pay it back because you were at fault for the overpayment.

See the Overpayment details table at the end of this letter. We can't waive this overpayment.

You can pay now

If you agree with our decision and don't want to appeal, you can pay now:

- Online at esd.wa.gov. Select Pay a benefit overpayment, or
- By mail – Send payments to:
Employment Security Collections
P.O. Box 24928
Seattle, WA 98124-0928

Search more than 60,000 Washington jobs on WorkSourceWA.com. Visit WorkSource for free employment workshops and expert job hunting advice.

Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov to find everything you need to know about benefits, including training for a new career.

Include:

- Your Social Security number or Employment Security ID number; and
- A request to apply your payment to your balance.

You must make payments on time. If you don't, we could:

- Garnish your wages or bank account(s); or
- Withhold your income tax refund.

If you need to discuss other payment options, call 866-697-4831.

You can appeal this decision if you disagree with it.

We sent a copy of this letter to the people or businesses listed below. They can appeal the decision, too. We'll notify you if they do.

[REDACTED]

What you need to do now

- Read this entire letter carefully and decide if you want to appeal. You have until Feb 3 2022 to appeal.
- Whether or not you appeal, continue to submit weekly claims for weeks you want to get benefits. We'll decide if you're qualified for those benefits.

How to appeal:

You or your employer(s) can appeal on eServices, by fax or postmarked by Feb 3 2022. You cannot appeal by email or phone.

The easiest way to appeal is to log into eServices, select this decision and follow the instructions.

If you choose to write a letter, you must tell us you disagree with the decision and would like to appeal. You must also include:

- Your Social Security number.
- The employer's name, address and phone number.
- Which decision you want to appeal.
- Your signature. We will return any unsigned appeals.

Mail or fax the letter to:

Employment Security Department
Claims Center Appeals
P.O. Box 19018
Olympia, WA 98507-0018
Fax: (800) 301-1795

After we receive an appeal:

- We will send the appeal and all information we have about this decision to the Office of Search more than 60,000 Washington jobs on WorkSourceWA.com. Visit WorkSource for free employment workshops and expert job hunting advice.
Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov to find everything you need to know about benefits, including training for a new career.

Administrative Hearings (OAH), which will schedule a hearing.

- OAH will mail a Notice of Hearing by U.S. mail to you and the people or businesses listed above about the hearing date and time.

More about filing an appeal:

- Go to the Benefit denials and appeals page on esd.wa.gov or type “benefit appeals” in the search box. You can find an appeal template on the Benefit denials and appeals page, available in English or Spanish.
- Visit <http://app.leg.wa.gov/rcw/> and type 50.32.020 in the search box.
